

Personal Packing List

The golden rule for a successful Caribbean experience... is comfort! Whether you're practicing Pure Barre, enjoying shore excursions, or hanging on the lido deck, you will experience the warm breeze in your hair. The elements of the Caribbean can vary, starting your day with cooler dewy atmosphere, hot sun by midday, and then cooler humid temps at night and let's not forget a lot of memories. Below is a quick list of items that will ensure you're ready for your Caribbean Adventure!

General Clothing Items:

- Multiple light layers (the safest bet when you run warm or cold)
- A Light waterproof long sleeve
- Waterproof or Resistant Shoes (comfortable for walking)
- Bathing suit (to use at the pool, hot tubs & spa)
- Sunglasses & Hats

Pure Barre Clothes and Items:

- Workout Tops & Leggings
- Sweatshirts & Jackets for Layering
- Sticky Socks
- Pure Barre Branded Apparel
- Neon Sunset Tuck & Glow Class –Neon and Bright 80s theme attire*
- Recovery Pure Barre Class – Neutrals, Earth Tones, Solids anything to Zen Out
- Pure Barre Dinners – Formal attire* Group Dinners
 - Day 3 (June 10th): Pure Barre Paint the Town Red Formal Night
 - Day 6 (June 13th): Dress to Impress Formal Night

Miscellaneous Items:

- Cell Phone & Charger
- Wallet, ID & Valid Passport
- Sunscreen &
- Sea Sickness Medication (if needed)
- Magnets (great option to decorate your stateroom door, easier to find)

*View Additional details on next page

Government Identification:

Additional Details

A valid Passport must be presented upon check in. Failure to present this will result in not being allowed to embark. US citizens traveling on this voyage may also present an original certified US birth certificate presented together with a valid US government-issued photo identification if a valid passport cannot be provided.

Formal Dining Nights:

There will be two Pure Barre at Sea formal dinner nights on Day 3 (June 10, Sea Day) and Day 6 (June 13, Sea Day) from 8:00pm – 10:00pm. On Day 3, we plan to coordinate and wear red formal items to really stand out and celebrate all things Pure Barre. The usual dress code for these formal dinners is an evening gown, cocktail dress or pantsuits for ladies, and a suit combination or dinner jacket for gentlemen and/or a buttoned shirt and pants (Note: no shorts will be allowed in the dining room during these nights).

Neon Sunset: Tuck & Glow Class:

Day 4 will feature our Neon Sunset inspired Glow Flow class! This electric Pure Barre party will get your heart pumping with black lights, glow accessories and post-class Full-Ship 80's Night Dance Party, up top on the Lido Deck! Pack your red and neon colored workout clothes to ensure your dressed for the occasion.

Laundry on Board:

You are welcome to take advantage of our onboard laundry, press-only and professional cleaning service! For your convenience, Princess vessels also have self-service laundrettes where washers, dryers, ironing equipment and laundry products are available for purchase. You may also bring your own laundry products.